No Admissions Yet About Ike's Running Plans

BY MERRIMAN SMITH

WASHINGTON, (UP) — The White House announced today that President Eisenhower definitely will hold a news conference at 10:30 a. m. (EST) tomorrow.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty refused to say whether the President would take the occasion tomorrow to announce his second-term intentions.

Top Republicans expected the chief executive to make his announcement at the conference tomorrow, but Hagerty did nothing to support their expectations.

Thus far the White House has not requested radio or television time for an address to the public by the President, nor would Hagerty say when such a request would be made.

Ten-thirty on Wednesday mornings is the usual time for Mr. Eisenhower's news conferences. An announcement then would come within an hour after the stock market opens for the day.

Asked whether the market was taken into consideration in scheduling the conference, Hagerty said, "It is the regular time for our press conference and that is the time it is going to be."

Prior to Hagerty's announcement, the President met for an hour with Republican congressional leaders. They said they came away with no definite knowledge of the President's decision or when it is to be announced. They said the second-term question was not discussed during their meeting with the chief executive.

Asked whether the President will announce his plans at the news conference, Hagerty said, "I would not know."

Charges GOPs Holding Bait to the South

BY JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Ellender (D-La.) said today "the administration is holding out some bait" to try to win votes of cotton state Senators in the close Senate battle over farm price supports.

The bait, he said in an interview, apparently will take two forms — support for legislation which would prevent further cuts in cotton acreage and an announcement expected soon that cotton prices will be supported around 87 per cent of parity in 1956.

Asked if this might win some Southern senators away from price supports fixed at 90 per cent, which they traditionally have backed, Ellender replied:

"I don't know. But if they make the bait attractive enough, some might be tempted."

He added, however, that "some senators don't like these side deals."

There was no immediate comment from Republican backers of the administration's system of flexible price supports, which on cotton and other basic crops may range between 75 and 90 per cent of parity. Partly is a legal standard said to be fair to farmers in relation to their costs.

Ellender is chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee and floor manager for the pending bill. It would couple a return to fixed 90 per cent price supports with the administration-backed soil bank plan. That contemplates payment of subsidies to farmers for taking land out of production of crops now in surplus.

No votes are in prospect until early next week.

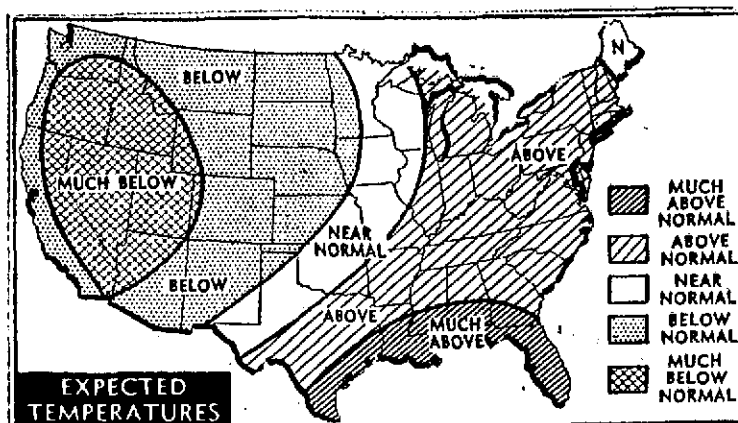

Sen. Humphrey (D-Min), a supporter of 90 per cent props, planned to continue today a 350-page speech he barely started yesterday. Humphrey said thousands of dollars are being sent on "a barrage of propaganda" for Secretary of Agriculture Benson's ideas.

White America, Inc. Seeks Members

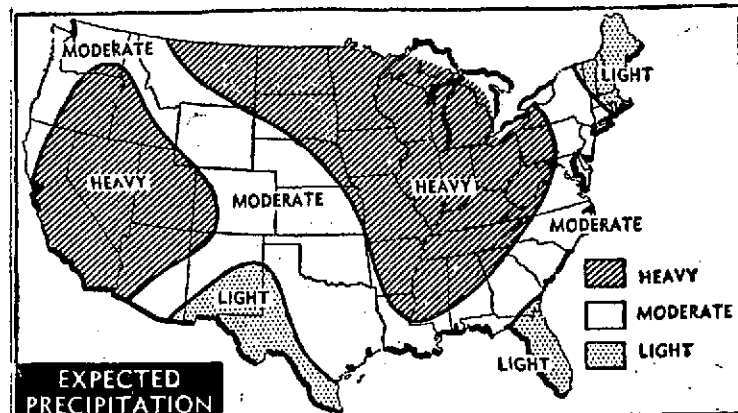

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A statewide campaign to enlist 100,000 members at $2 each this year in White America, Inc., opened today in Lawrence County.

Amis Guthridge, executive secretary of the pro-segregation organization, said that Field Director Harold Sam hopes to enroll 2,000 members in Lawrence County, scene of the Hoxie School integration dispute.

Sain, a former North Little Rock aluminum awning salesman, will be assisted by several local organizations including the Hoxie School Segregation Committee, Guthridge said.

Temperatures until mid-March will average below normal in the western half of the country. Above normal temperatures are predicted east of the Mississippi.

Precipitation until mid-March is expected to be subnormal in New England, the South Atlantic states and the Southern Plains. Above normal amounts are expected in the rest of the country.

More Funds Donated to Heart Goal

The 1956 Heart Fund Campaign in Hope has moved a step nearer attainment of its $1,000 goal with the following contributions according to Mrs. Bill Routon, Publicity chairman.

$10.00 contributions: T. S. McDavitt, Saenger Theatre; Penny's, Shover Springs Home Demonstration Club; Burke's Shoe Store; $2.50, Moon's Jewelry $3.00; $1.00 contributions, Fred McElroy, Red Kennedy, Toggery Shop, Patterson's Shoe Store, Griggs Decorators, Vogue, Rephans, Duffie Hdw., Keith Jewelry, Fosters; O. K. Barber Shop, Stewart's Jewelry, Leonard Ellis, Western Union, and City Barber Shop.

The National Heart Association has established that approximately 30% of the Nations Heart death occur among persons under 65 years old.

Preachers Want to Halt School Dances

CLARKSVILLE, (AP)—The Clarksville School Board has rejected a demand by three churchmen, who contended dancing is a sin comparable to murder, that students be prohibited from any rug-cutting in the high school gym.

The Rev. Carl Johns, a Baptist pastor and spokesman for the ministers, told the board last night that, "we class dancing with drunkenness, adultery and murder."

However, the board agreed with the views of student "Butch" Drummond, who argued that dancing in the school gym at the noon recess wasn't any different from playing ping pong. After conferring privately, board members issued this statement: "The board voted to continue the voluntary recreation program as it has been to date."

The Rev. Mr. Johns said he and his supporters will meet Saturday to discuss their next move.

Unsettled Is Question Who Should Control Family Income Spending — Wife or Husband?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Curbstone reflections of a Pavement Plato: Who should control the spending of the family income—husband or wife?

It is generally believed that a woman boss the spending of about 85 per cent of the expenditures in the American home.

A revolutionary new organization—"The Brotherhood of the True Man"—has been formed by publicist Carl Ruoff to challenge this figure and spread the doctrine that the American male is and ought to be master of his own paycheck.

Operating under the slogan, "Never Underestimate the Power of a Man," the organization cites a magazine survey to make the following claims:

Big 3 Agree on Middle East Action

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON (AP)—The Big Three Western Powers today were reported agreed on the main lines of military action they would take against any nation starting a new Arab-Israeli war.

A British informant said the exact details still are being worked out by diplomats and staff officers of the United States, Britain and France in Washington. But Western action in an emergency, he asserted, would be swift and effective.

The Foreign Office refused to comment on the report. Officials said, however, the British and French ambassadors in Washington will meet again soon with State Department leaders to continue a study of the problem.

The United States and Britain already have begun a show of their naval strength in sight of the disputing parties in the eastern Mediterranean.

Current or planned naval moves in that area suggest that Western sea and air power would be used initially if large-scale fighting broke out between Israel and her Arab neighbors. The informant said present arrangements call for dispatch of land forces to a battle zone only as a last resort and after consultations with the United Nations.

Faubus Okays Petition Signing

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—If state employees want to sign petitions to put a proposed pro-segregation measure on the November General election ballot, Gov. Orval Faubus says he has no objections.

"No stress or pressure is being exerted for employees to be for or against any of the measures being proposed, and none will be," said Faubus yesterday.

The governor made the statement in reply to a complaint by James D. Johnson that state officials had been ordered not to sign petitions he is circulating. The petitions seek a ballot place for amendment directing the Arkansas Legislature to take certain steps toward evading the U. S. supreme Court's anti-segregation decisions.

Johnson, a Crossett attorney and of the White Citizens Council of former state senator, is director of Arkansas.

Dulles Declares First Round of Cold War Won

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN

WASHINGTON, (INS)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles indicated today the West has won the first round of the cold war but warned that the second rounds is beginning and there can be no complacency.

Dulles told a news conference that the Communists remain precariously in character but in the second round of the cold war probably will use more guile and less force.

He warned that although the shift in direction of Soviet tactics is probably permanent, Russia still can revert to a policy of violence at any time.

Dulles was asked what he thought of the Democratic charge that he was too optimistic in his view of America's present position in the world. He replied that he felt that a very considerable result has been accomplished during the past 10 years.

The secretary pointed out that 10 years ago, he wrote that a third world war almost certainly would result unless the Soviet Union could be diverted from its policies of intolerance and violence.

And six years ago, he noted, he wrote that if the Communists could be persuaded to drop the writings of Lenin and Stalin as their bible, there would be less danger of war.

No Inflation in Sight, Say Experts

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government economists today stuck to their forecasts of "no inflation" while reporting prices still are edging up generally, with falling food costs obscuring the rise.

The consumer price index for January, issued last week, showed a slight decline for the second successive month. The drop was caused primarily by lower meat and grocery bills.

But price boosts have occurred in many basic industries in recent months and weeks—coal, copper, lumber, fuel oil, tin, rubber and rayon, among others. There is talk of possible hikes in steel and aluminum.

This might seem to conflict with President Eisenhower's assertion, in the economic message to Congress a month ago, that record income and production levels were achieved in 1955 "without the specious aid of price inflation."

Officials statistics support Eisenhower's views. Although almost all family budget items except food rose during 1955, the bureau of labor statistics consumer index climbed only four tenths of 1 per cent for the year.

Food, representing 30 per cent of the index, dropped seven tenths per cent last year and almost 5 per cent in the past four years.

That movement reflects in part the five-year, 25 per cent slump in prices received by farmers. It probably has prevented living costs from moving up past the all-time record set in October 1953. In that month the index stood at 115.4 per cent of the 1947-9 average; today's index is 114.6.

West Virginia Senator Dies

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Harley Martine Kilgore the first West Virginian ever elected to there successive terms to the U. S. Senate, died early today.

Death came at 2:23 a. m. to the 63-year-old Democrat at Bethesda Naval Hospital.

He became seriously ill Feb. 25 when he suffered a "minor stroke" at the hospital. He had gone there 12 days before for a physical checkup and treatment for high blood pressure.

Prior to the stroke he had responded favorably to treatment and had expected to leave the hospital within a few days.

Harold C. Miller, Kilgore's administrative assistant, said the senator suffered another cerebral hemorrhage early this morning and died soon afterward. He said he had been in a semi-coma for most of the day.

The past two days, Miller said, and was unconscious at the time.

Air Force Launches Probe of Wrecks

By United Press

The Air Force today launched twin investigations into the almost identical crashes of two huge bombers which killed 15 men late yesterday.

The disasters near Dayton, Ohio, and Sedalia, Mo., occurred only three hours apart. Both bombers smashed into farm houses and exploded while trying to get back to their bases.

Officials at Whiteman Air Force base said their investigation of the Sedalia tragedy got underway early today. It was headed by Commanding Officer A. J. Beck and included technicians from the Boeing plant at Wichita, Kan.

Treasurer, Oil Lobbyist Differ in Testimony

By JOHN A. GOLDSMITH

WASHINGTON (UP)—Nebraska's Republican treasurer and an oil lobbyist who handed him a $250,000 campaign gift gave Senate investigators conflicting testimony today about the circumstances of the contribution.

Party Treasurer Joseph Wishart testified that a man who was a complete stranger to him—Lobbyist-Attorney John M. Neff of Lexington, Neb.—walked up to him in a Washington hotel last October and gave him $25,000 bills. He said he never had seen him before Neff called out to him as he entered the hotel elevator.

But Neff, the lobbyist whose $250,000 campaign gift gave Senate investigators conflicting testimony today about the circumstances of the contribution, said he had been introduced to Wishart several times before that in Nebraska. He observed that "I am afraid these politicians don't remember us small town people."

Gentry Gets Promise of Police Help

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—State Police troopers will be available to help any effort to "clean up the gambling mess" at Hot Springs, State Police Director Herman Lindsey told Atty. Gen. Tom Gentry here today.

The meeting of Gentry, who was foiled over the weekend in an attempt to padlock the Tower Club at Hot Springs, and Lindsey took place less than 12 hours after Gentry moved against three other Garland County nightspots.

Municipal Judge M. C. Lewis Jr. of Hot Springs said last night he had issued search warrants to Gentry for the Southern Club and the Reno Club at Hot Springs and the Pines Supper Club on the outskirts to Hot Springs.

Gentry said today that he had HOT SPRINGS, (AP)—Atty. Gen. Tom Gentry, foiled over the weekend in an attempt to padlock the nearby Tower Club, moved against three other Garland County nightspots yesterday.

Municipal Judge M. C. Lewis Jr., revealed last night that he had issued search warrants to Gentry for the Southern and Reno Clubs here, and the Pines Supper Club on the city's outskirts.

Judge Lewis said Gentry and two aides, James L. Sloan and Thorp Thomas, appeared at his office yesterday and demanded the warrants. He said all three documents were made out to State Police Director Herman Lindsey.

Earlier in the day, Gentry had said at Little Rock that he would seek "additional action" in the Springs "gambling situation," but declined to say what move he planned.

Judge Lewis quoted Gentry as saying he would deliver the warrants to State Police Director Lindsey, and would take action against the director if Lindsey refuse to serve them.

Spector an assistant professor at Washington University in St. Louis Mo., said, "all the Asians want is someone who is human and loves them. I would not hesitate to nominate Danny Kaye as ambassador to any southeast Asian nation."

16 Persons Killed, 60 Injured as Commuter Train Rams Another

True Space Man May Age More Slowly Than Earth People But It Would Cost His Hair

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Men flashing through space at fantastic speeds may age more slowly than earthbound people but their hair may burn gray from cosmic ray bombardment. And they may not know which way is up.

Interplanetary ships may have to be rotated to produce a small amount of gravitational pull for the peace of mind and physical comfort of the people aboard.

These are some of the things which searchers in space medicine are talking about at a current symposium at the University of California.

The slow aging idea will be hard to prove or disprove unless there is an actual trial in space, said Dr. Nello Pace, biologist and director of California University of California physiology and director of the White Mountain high altitude laboratory in the California Sierra.

The relatively theory has it that time slows down for anything traveling at velocities approaching the speed of light, 186,000 miles per second.

At 181,000 miles per second, an hour of space time is about two hours of earth time. For all scientists know now, Dr. Pace said, a person who travels for several years at such speed might come back to earth and find that he had aged less than the people at home.

Prof. Herman B. Chase of Brown University reported finding a significant amount of graying in mice sent aloft 20 miles or more in balloons. There the animals were subjected to primary cosmic rays. This indicates that a cosmic ray hazard exists, Prof. Chase said, but that it may not be as serious as other factors.

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass. — At least 16 persons were killed and more than 60 were injured today when one commuter train smashed into the rear of another in a driving snowstorm.

Some passengers who were in the wreck were involved in a second collision of two other commuter trains that occurred about five miles from the site of the first accident.

At least 12 persons were injured in the second wreck, which was a rear-end collision.

The first, and worst, crash occurred near Swampscott station.

Rescuers recovered 18 bodies. It was feared the toll might be higher.

The first collision involved passenger trains bound from Portsmouth, N.H., and Salem, Mass. for Boston.

The second accident was nearby. It involved commuter trains that had left Marblehead, Mass., for Boston.

Some passengers were in both collisions.

All four trains were operated by the Boston and Maine Railroad. The Swampscott accident was by far the worst. In it, one of the cars was ripped in two, others were knocked off the tracks, the cars in the mishap remained on the tracks, proceeded to Boston where injured were removed to a hospital.

Austin Davis of Marblehead, assistant sergeant at arms at state house, was in both wrecks. He suffered a bruised hip and in the first accident but was hurt in the second.

More than 1,000 passengers aboard the two trains in Swampscott collision.

The bodies were taken to a fire station for identification.

The train from Salem, made of nine stainless steel self-propelled Budd cars, smashed into the rear of the nine-car diesel-powered train from Portsmouth.

A witness said that the train was a "standstill" when it was rammed by the Budd train. The first car of the train virtually skidded under the car of the Portsmouth train.

Passengers inside the train scrambled to get out. Some were hysterical.

The accident occurred at 8 a. m. (EST) during a winter snowstorm that hit much of New England. Visibility was poor.

The wreck knocked down telephone lines in the area.

The injured were removed to hospitals throughout the North Shore.

A passenger on the Portsmouth train, who refused to disclose his name, said all the passengers' cars were tossed off their tracks.

"I looked out and there was a Budd car alongside my car," he said.

Involved in the shooting was Negro woman, Aretha Cooper, who is in jail on an open charge of firing further investigation.

The shooting occurred at Oak Street about 5 a. m. Sunday morning. City Officers said shooting wasn't reported until about 9 a. m.; four hours later.

Moses was shot with a .38 caliber. The bullet entered his mouth and lodged in his brain. Sirens gave him no chance for recovery after the first examination.

BULLET WOUND Is Fatal to Negro Man

A Negro with a bullet lodged in his brain died last night in a local hospital approximately 15 hours after he was shot. He is listed as Godfrey G. Moses, about 40.

 Crying for even more masculine control over spending, Ruoff continues:

"What man would admit that he lets his wife decide what books to read, what airline to fly, what lawn mower to guide
 "Do you want your 1957 automobile to be painted 'ticked pink' to match Madam's new lipstick or do you want one in which you can stretch out to your natural length.

"Will you drink your whisky out of a bottle or from the makings of next year's lamp?
 Ruoff has invited me to join in his new fight for 'male freedom'.
 He has also invited such other distinguished exponents of masculinity as Humphrey Bogart, Bob Considine, Robert Ruark, Tools
 Shar Ernest Hemingway, Errol
 Flynn and Papa Dionne.

I don't know how they feel about it, but in me they picked the wrong fellow. This is no revolution I'm going to sit out.
 It isn't that I'm against subverting womankind. But the Brotherhood of the True Man is going about it in exactly the wrong way.

You don't weaken women by trying to take money away from them. That only makes 'em stronger and more determined. The true way to cross up women is to hand
 the control of money over to them —and make them feel responsible for spending it.

A man doesn't get ulcers from earning money, which can be fun, but from figuring out what to do with it after he gets it. If he turns this problem over to his wife, maybe she'll get the ulcers instead of him.

Traditionally, it is the warrior's duty to bring home the bacon. But it's the wife's job to cut it up into chunks, and pass the chunks around.

Any sensible husband ought to be content merely to lug home a satisfactory paycheck, and turn most of it over to his wife. Let the little woman then worry about how to pay it out.

As she gets wrinkles and writter's cramp struggling over the family paycheck, he is left free to indulge in such purely masculine joys as scratching himself, and reading the sports page.

The way to keep a wife happy is to keep her uncertain, and the best way for a husband to keep her uncertain is to hand over her income and tell her it's purely up to her whether they save enough to ride a cab to the poorhouse, or have to go there afoot.

Segregationists Seek Offices

HOXIE (M)—Four candidates, two of them identified as prosegregationists, are contesting for two positions on the Hoxie School Board which mixed Negroes and whites in schools here last year.

The candidates were listed by Election Commissioner James L.
 Bland Jr. of Walnut Ridge as Herbert Brewer, head of the Hoxie Committee on Segregation; Herbert Green, a Hoxie grocerman; Enos A. Nicholson, a contractor, and Irwin Campbell, a carpenter.

The filing deadline was Saturday.
 The election will be March 7.
 Brewer and Green are contest-ing for the position of Leslie R.
 Howell, board president, whose 5-year term expires. Howell is not seeking re-election.

Nicholson, identified by White America leader Amis Guthridge as a pro-segregationist, and Campbell are seeking to fill the unexpired term of L. L. Cochran, who moved to West Memphis and resigned with one year of his term remaining.
 The other three board positions are not up for election.

Office Flirtation Can Lead to Real Trouble

Dear Miss Dix: Though I am engaged to, and deeply in love with, Fiske, my attention has been wandering to a man in my office. This isn't love as it is with my fiancé, but I feel a compulsion to go out with the new man to test my emotions. I'm afraid I do go out with him, my engagement will be broken, as Fiske says he won't tolerate even the slightest act of disloyalty. What can I do? LYDIA

Answer: You don't have much choice. Either you go out with the office hero and break your engagement or you put temptation resolutely away. I heartily advise the latter.

These office charmers are a fascinating breed without much to offer. The object of your attention may be married or engaged himself. Perhaps he's using a mild flirtation with you to break the tedium of the daily grind. Don't throw away a sure thing for a will o' the wisp. Your tendency to wander into forbidden bypaths of romance had best be curbed now—and forever now—and forever. You may end up minus both finance and office beau.

He Won't Dance
 Dear Miss: I'm in love with a guy who doesn't dance. I went steady with him for a year, and when the prom came up he wouldn't go. I asked another boy, who accepted, but the result was a break-up with my steady. What can I do to win him back?

BEWILDERED
 Answer: Is your steady afflicted with two left feet or is his refusal to dance due to stubbornness? If he just can't learn, better practice being a bystander—if you want him back.

Since dancing is the bone of contention, new forms of social activity are in order. I hope he isn't equally adverse to bowling, skating, swimming or tennis, all of which can be fun through nothing. I admit, takes the place of dancing to one who likes it. If he knows your willingness to forego the tango for his sake, he'll come back.

Dear Miss Dix: Some six months ago I met Chuck and we fell in love. I didn't know at the time that he was married, but have subsequently learned he has a wife and 6-year-old child. He and his wife live together but don't get along too well. He says he will get a divorce and marry me some day. I'm willing to wait a lifetime for him. HAZEL

Answer: A lifetime is exactly what you'll probably have to put into waiting, so get out your knitting, latting or weaving. You may have a long life!

Bail-Jumping Red Leader Give Up

 NEW YORK, (INS)—Bail-jumping Communist party leader Gil Gretn—a fugitive for almost five years—surrendered today at the federal court house in New York. Green's appearance was right on the schedule announced Friday in a letter bearing his name which the mail to International News Service and other wire services. MILAN, Italy. (UP)—A Catholic priest dying of cancer in a Milan clinic has offered his eyes as a last bequest to war-crippled children he has helped.
 The priest, Don Carlo Gnocchi, 53, told Milan eye specialist Cesare Galeazzi, "I want one of my blind children to see again with my eyes." Galeazzi promised he would carry out the request.
 Don Carlo has given some 2,000 war-crippled children new hope in life through institutes organized by his foundation. When doctors announced he was dying of cancer of the spine children all over Italy started praying for him.

Total damages: Four persons injured, 16 vehicles smashed.

NICE, France. (UP)—Albert Pierrepont, who resigned as Britain's chief hangman last week, said today he is vacationing here until the current British furor over capital punishment dies down. Pierrepont said his resignation and the prospect that Britain may abandon the gallows brought crowds flocking to his London pub, but there was no profit in it. The crowds just gawked—they didn't drink.

 His resignation takes the grim job out of his family for the first time in 85 years. Stephen Wade, Britain's No. 2 hangman, has offered to take Pierrepont's place if parliament decides to continue hanging murderers.

LONDON (UP)—Britain's guided missiles have claimed their first "victim," a target plane destroyed by an air-to-air "fireflash" last week, it was reported today.

The Fairly Aircraft Corp. published a sequence of pictures showing a fireflash, fired from a meteor jet fighter, destroying a radio-controlled "Flettner" plane.

Purdom Talks Willingly About Career

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD—Edmund Purdom submitted to questioning to day and played pointed about his life and played about his love life.

Referring to start his first film in a year, "The Intruder" with "Lupino" the British actor declared to get it over with and extended himself to queries. He knew he would be asked about his much-publicized romance with Linda Christian, which has been reported cooling because of her date with other men.

"Actually there is no change in our relationship," he commented. "There can be no change as far as I am concerned because I have been quoted—accurately at least—on what our relationship is."

"I have always held to the somewhat archaic belief that my private life was my own. But of course this makes no impression. Stories have been carried to the proportion of the scandal magazines and others with charges of 'husband stealing' and other things. Utterly ridiculous."

Concerning Linda's other dates, Linda is putting on a campaign, and rightfully so, to have herself recognized as an actress on her own merits. Her dates with people like Cantinflas and Mike Todd are part of that campaign. "I'm sure people will sometime recognize the fact that she is an excellent performer. A picture she recently in Spain will prove it."

About his own romantic future, he laughed. "I am much more concerned with whether my wife will marry than I will." The reason he must pay her whopping

Twin Dies, Same Fate Awaits Second

By TOM FARRELL

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., (UP)—

The parents of a 2-year-old girl who died of leukemia said today it was only a matter of time until the disease kills her twin sister.

Mr. and Mrs. John Van Lopik's prayerful watch over Eileen Sue ended yesterday when the girl died. But death had played only half of its tragedy in their lives.

The second twin, Kathleen Jo, will also die shortly from the same disease.

Kathleen Joe toddled in and out of her stricken sister's room, unaware that she too was dying.

The deeply religious young couple had been keeping constant vigil at Eileen Sue's bed, sleeping only in snatches, waiting for her death.

"Now she is in heaven with Jesus. We are sure she has gone straight to the arms of Jesus," Van Lopik said.

"Now we have to wait again."

The Ford V-8 again showed its tailight to all competitors in the "Olympics" of stock car racing at Daytona Beach, Florida.

In blazing across the finish line Ford demonstrated once more the sizzling performance that keeps it the largest-selling V-8 in the world. No other car in the field could match Ford for getaway "git" . . . for straightaway acceleration . . . for all-around roadability. To see exactly how the other cars trailed behind Ford, see the chart at the top of this page.

One of the secrets of Ford's performance is the tremendous torque (wheel turning power) developed by Ford engines. For example, Ford's new 225-h.p. Thunderbird Special V-8 engine develops more torque than any other engine in the low-price field. This means quicker response, smoother running in the kind of driving you do. Just a gentle nudge of Ford's accelerator and whoosh! You pass in instants when instants count!

Ford now offers this mighty 225-h.p. engine with any Ford Fairlane or Station Wagon model with Fordomatic. What's more, these engines are coming off the assembly lines right now! So why wait? Come in today for a Test Drive. Find out for yourself about Ford's exciting performance. Find out why Ford is the V-8 with the world's biggest following!
